KINCAID JOINS DYSART TAYLOR COTTER MCMONIGLE & MONTEMORE, P.C.

(Kansas City) – Dysart Taylor Cotter McMonigle & Montemore, P.C., a member of the Greater Kansas City Chamber of Commerce, is pleased to announce that Matthew T. Kincaid, an experienced young attorney, has joined the firm. A Kansas City area native, Matt was a student at the University of Kansas, where he earned a B.A. with a double major in economics and psychology, an M.B.A., and a J.D. with a certificate in business and commercial law.

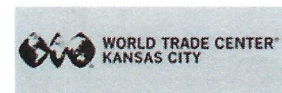

Though Matt is new to Dysart Taylor, he comes to the firm with knowledge of its history and successes. Matt's family owned and operated a national bus company headquartered in Kansas City, KS, Kincaid Coach Lines, Inc., a Dysart Taylor transportation client, giving Matt both familiarity with Dysart and a unique, personal connection to the firm.

In addition to his law practice, Matt is heavily involved in the greater Kansas City community. Matt is a lecturer of business law at the University of Kansas School of Business, a board member of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Kansas City and of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section, a chair of the Ross T. Roberts Trial Academy, and was a 2015 participant in Leadership Overland Park.

Matt will focus his practice at Dysart Taylor on estate and business planning, asset protection, and entrepreneurial law.

Dysart Taylor Cotter McMonigle & Montemore, P.C. is a full service law firm founded in 1934, and based in Kansas City, Mo. Its values are "Commitment, Stability and Value." For more information, visit www.dysarttaylor.com.

Kincaid joins Dysart Taylor

By: Staff Report July 20, 2015

Dysart Taylor Cotter McMonigle & Montemore, P.C., announced in a press release that Matthew T. Kincaid has joined the firm.

Kincaid, described in the press release as a Kansas-City-area native and "an experienced young attorney," comes to the firm "with knowledge of its history and successes." His family is a client of the firm through Kincaid Coach Lines Inc., a national bus company headquartered in Kansas City that the family owned and operated, the release said.

That relationship gives Kincaid "a familiarity with Dysart and a unique, personal connection to the firm."

Kincaid will focus his practice at Dysart Taylor on estate and business planning, asset protection, and entrepreneurial law, the release said. He earned his law degree, with a certificate in business and commercial law, from the University of Kansas.

In addition to his law practice, Kincaid "is heavily involved in the greater Kansas City community," the release said. He is a lecturer of business law at the University of Kansas School of Business, a board member of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Kansas City and of the Kansas City Metropolitan Bar Association's Young Lawyers Section, a chairman of the Ross T. Roberts Trial Academy and was a 2015 participant in Leadership Overland Park.
