CHAMBER RELATIONSHIPS PROVIDE SUPPORT FOR ENTREPRENEUR

The Leawood Chamber of Commerce is very pleased to share with you our newest member: Kincaid Business & Entrepreneurial Law, LLC, a Leawood based law practice founded by Matthew T. Kincaid!

Matt Kincaid is no stranger to our Chamber. He was a devoted member and volunteer while an associate attorney at the Martin Pringle Law Firm. When Kincaid left Martin Pringle to join the Dysart Taylor Law Firm, a firm steeped in Kansas City, Missouri tradition, he temporarily parted ways with us. But Kincaid could not leave us for long. Brimming with enthusiasm and a passion for entrepreneurship, Kincaid embarked upon a career path uncommon for a 30-year-old attorney: he decided to leave his comfortable law firm position, the apple of most young lawyers' eyes, and start his own practice. "At first, I will admit, the concept scared me," said Kincaid. "Where do I start? Will clients follow?" Then Kincaid used a technique not uncommon amongst successful people: he “derived motivation from his fears” and “exhibited courage, one of the most undervalued attributes of our time.” How inspirational!

With knowledge that those in the legal profession live and die by their relationships, Kincaid called Beth Johnson of our Chamber within a week of opening his practice. His firm’s expenditure on the Chamber’s membership dues represents the first marketing cost it has incurred. “It was an easy decision,” said Kincaid.

Kincaid’s practice focuses on the representation of business owners and entrepreneurs. This type of practice requires an attorney to have a broad base of knowledge and skills, which Kincaid principally developed while employed at his prior two law firms.

We’re so pleased to announce Matt Kincaid’s return to our Chamber. Welcome back, Matt!
