Q. What personal or professional accomplishments are you most proud of?

A. More than anything else, what I am most proud of is my continuing desire to achieve something greater than what I have already achieved. I have not let my successes cloud the intensity with which I pursue my next goal.

Q. What do you love most about Kansas City?

A. What I love most about Kansas City is that I am able to call such an incredible city my home! After that, I would say that I love Kansas City's history, diversity, size, and location.
